PENITENTIAL ACT KYRIE

GLORIA — Mass of Light — David Hass

Glo-ry to God in the high - est, glo - ry to God, and on earth peace to peo - ple, to peo - ple of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the Glory of God the Father. Amen.

COLLECT / OPENING PRAYER

The priest says the Prayer over the Collect and all respond: AMEN

II. LITURGY OF THE WORD

A reading from the book of Prophet Malachi

—MAL 3: 1-4

Thus says the Lord GOD: Lo, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me; And suddenly there will come to the temple the LORD whom you seek, And the messenger of the covenant whom you desire. Yes, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts. But who will endure the day of his coming? And who can stand when he appears? For he is like the refiner's fire, or like the fuller's lye. He will sit refining and purifying silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, Refining them like gold or like silver that they may offer due sacrifice to the LORD. Then the sacrifice of Judah and Jerusalem will please the LORD, as in the days of old, as in years gone by.

Lector: The Word of the Lord

Assembly: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 24: We Long to See Your Face # 25

Refrain II

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

—HEB 2: 14-18

Since the children share in blood and flesh, Jesus likewise shared in them, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the Devil, and free those who through fear of death had been subject to slavery all their life. Surely he did not help angels but rather the descendants of Abraham; therefore, he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every way, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest before God to expiate the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested through what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

Lector: The Word of the Lord

Assembly: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

— Mass of Light — David Hass

GOSPEL

Priest: The Lord be with you

Assembly: And with your Spirit.

Priest: A reading from the gospel according to Luke

Assembly: Glory to you O Lord

(When saying 'Glory to you O Lord', with your thumb make a little sign of the cross on your forehead; then on your lips; then on your heart)

—LUK 2: 22-40

When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, Mary and Joseph took Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord, just as it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that opens the womb shall be consecrated to the Lord, and to offer the sacrifice of a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons, in accordance with the dictate in the law of the Lord. Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, awaiting the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord. He came in the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to perform the custom of the law in regard to him, he took him into his arms and blessed God, saying: "Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel." The child's father and mother were amazed at what was said about him; and Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, "Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted - and you yourself a sword will pierce-- so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed." There was also a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was advanced in years, having lived seven years with her husband after her marriage, and then as a widow until she was eighty-four. She never left the temple, but worshiped night and day with fasting and prayer. And coming forward at that very time, she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were awaiting the redemption of Jerusalem. When they had fulfilled all the prescriptions of the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

Lector: The Gospel of the Lord

Assembly: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Stick together. Love each other, and together: Look to Jesus in Prayer.

JESUS IS THE FULFILLMENT OF GOD'S PROMISES TO ISRAEL, AND THE LIGHT TO REVEAL GOD'S GLORY TO THE WORLD.

At first this celebration may seem rather strange and out of sequence. We have long since taken down the Christmas decorations and put away the crèches. Indeed, two Sundays of Ordinary Time have passed during which the adult Jesus has been baptized, begun his public ministry and called his first disciples. This is where knowledge of Jewish custom and history helps us understand this momentary shift out of Ordinary Time and back to a feast.

The Gospel, says, When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, Mary and Joseph took Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord. Mosaic Law set this time of purification as 40 days after the birth of a male child – and today is 40 days, inclusive, after Christmas.

What occurred on this holy day took place for countless other Jewish mothers and their sons. The rite of purification included a burnt offering to the Lord – for the wealthy the sacrifice of a one-year old lamb or goat; for the poor, two turtle doves or young pigeons, as Mary does here. As her firstborn son, Jesus is also consecrated to the Lord, and while this does not have to take place in a temple, Mary and Joseph took Jesus to the Temple in Jerusalem for this purpose.

The symbolism of this ought not to be lost on us. In bringing Jesus to the Temple, his parents are giving back the very gift that God has given them. This gesture of whole-hearted thanksgiving to God, therefore, becomes the pattern of salvation and the way of all Christian living. This newborn child, the Father's gift to creation, will in turn offer his whole life back to God in another act of sacrificial self-giving at Calvary. The child who is presented in the Temple of Jerusalem will one day die in this same city, destroying this Temple and raising a new one.

Simeon and Anna, just and pious people, were also present in the Temple. Their hearts were full of expectant hope in the fulfillment of the promises God had made to Israel about her redemption. Together, they represent all who ever longed for the coming of the Messiah and for the redemption of humanity.

As Simeon says, this child is the revelation of God's glory. Jesus fulfills the title given to him in an earlier part of Luke's Gospel, where he is described as Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give him the throne of David his father (1:32). He is the very gift of God to us, long promised through the words of Malachi: the one who will fill the Temple with the very presence of God.

But this is not just any divine revelation, for Jesus shares with us our human condition, with all its trials and temptations, making him a true light and hope for all humanity. While Christians are no longer dedicated according to the Law of Moses, we are presented at baptism by name, and, through the grace of that sacrament, conformed to the very identity and sacrifice of Christ. The life we have been given by God is therefore best lived by our own loving, thankful and obedient service to him. With God's help, may we always do so.

HEART OF THE MATTER: TIME FOR REFLECTION AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

First Reading: Malachi 3:1-4

1. Pope Francis reminds us that being Christian ultimately means, not so much doing new things, but allowing ourselves to be re-newed by the Holy Spirit. Do you think that the "messenger of the covenant" promised by God in this reading would have been filled with the Holy Spirit? Discuss: Who was this promised messenger?
2. Name some of God's messengers today and in the recent past. Would you put the following in the "messengers" category: Martin Luther King, Mother Teresa, Pope John XXIII and Pope Francis? Who else? What about poets, writers, artists, theologians, musicians? Who speaks to you of God? Do you listen to/for the messages? Are you a messenger?

Second Reading: Hebrews 2:14-18

3. "Because he himself was tested through what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested." Does this mean that Jesus understands every human pain and suffering that we experience? How do you feel about this? To whom do you turn when things aren't going well?
4. God is all knowing. God is love. Do you think God also wants to be known and loved? Is it easier to love God, who understands your needs, in the flesh, or God in the heavens?

Gospel: Luke 2:22-40 or 2:22-32

5. Simeon and Anna were not part of the formal temple personnel. How was it that they recognized Jesus as the "light for revelation to the Gentiles." Were they listening to the Holy Spirit? In this instance how did it work for them?
6. Simeon took the babe into his arms and said, "Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace." Do you think that, in tough situations, or in any situation, you will experience the peace that Simeon experienced? What if you "hold the Lord in your arms," like Simeon. Not only in our heads and in our hearts, but also "in our hands," in all that we do: in prayer, at work, at the table, on the telephone, at school, with the poor, everywhere.

(JESUS) A LIGHT OF REVELATION TO THE GENTILES, AND GLORY FOR YOUR PEOPLE ISRAEL.

Annual Catholic Appeal 2020

This year's Annual Catholic Appeal draws its theme—Come, follow me...and share the Word—from Jesus' words in Luke's gospel as he calls his first disciples to follow him.

Both the Annual Catholic Appeal and the diocesan journey we have begun with Renew My Church are opportunities to revitalize and live out our discipleship of Jesus. Our prayers, our abiding practical concern for others, and our financial support enable us to leave our mark in this world as Jesus' disciples. By God's grace, we can contribute to the world's transformation and the renewal of our Church.

YOUR GIFT'S IMPACT

Your contributions and generosity are deeply appreciated, much needed and make a real difference in the lives of many.

Each of us is responsible for the well-being of others within our Archdiocese and throughout world. The Annual Catholic Appeal is an opportunity to meaningfully support Catholic education, faith formation, community life ministries and programs for peace and justice here and everywhere.

Careful thought is given to the use of each and every gift. They are gifts to support God's work, and we use them accordingly.

Taking a closer look at... the Institution Narrative and Consecration

As we continue our Mass Moments in the Eucharistic Prayer, remember that the Holy Spirit has been called down upon the gifts and the power of transformation is at hand. As scripture tells us, the institution of the Eucharist takes place on the night before Jesus died, at the Last Supper. In faith, we are called to forget what we know about the concept of time. This moment in the Mass is a Re-presenting, in the now, of that moment. It is a miracle and a moment of great mystery, for what is happening at the altar was then, is now, and will be ever present, and real, at every Mass, and in every location in which the sacrifice of the Mass is offered, throughout the world. Today, listen closely to the words spoken by the priest who, first as narrator, sets the scene, gives thanks and blessing, and then directly, no longer his own person, but JESUS himself, says "take this, all of you, and eat of it, for this is My Body which will be given up for you." This action is repeated when JESUS says, "take this, all of you, and drink from it. For this is the chalice of My Blood, the Blood of the new and eternal covenant, which will be poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this in memory of Me." According to Saint Thomas Aquinas, the POWER of Christ is present in the other Sacraments. However, in the Eucharist, CHRIST is present with us, as offering and as sacrifice. This is the moment of transubstantiation. After each command, the priest elevates the body, and then the chalice, to show the faithful that consecration has taken place. This is the moment that Jesus is the body and the blood – the food of our transformation and salvation. This is the moment that we are called to recognize Jesus offering to the father (– which includes all of us and all of creation with him) – in memory of, and in union with him -- the sacrifice he willingly offers to redeem us and reunite us in the Father's love.

Next week: We will look at the memorial acclamation and its place as the pinnacle of this sacred encounter with Jesus.

TRANSFIGURATION MINISTRY OF PRAYER

We know that life can be challenging and the only thing that may help to get you back to center is Prayer. We believe very strongly in the power of Prayer. This belief and knowing comes from seeing or hearing about the many demonstrations or testimonies in the lives of people around the world.

At the end of weekend Masses the Transfiguration Ministry of Prayer will be in the front of the Church to pray for you or someone you love and care for.

Please know that each Minister of Transfiguration Ministry of Prayer commits to holding your intentions in the light of Christ, standing in Truth, Principle and Love. Prayer is the tool we use to know the truth. It is not about begging or pleading for something to happen to change the conditions in life. It is about aligning ourselves with the all good of God that surrounds us at all times.

Every request we receive is treated with love, compassion, respect and dignity.

What is RCIA?

RCIA prepares unbaptized adults for the sacraments of initiation: Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist and to be in full communion with the Catholic Church.

RCIA is also for adults who have been baptized but have not completed their sacraments of initiation.

RCIA is for anyone who would like to learn more about their Catholic faith.

The journey begins in September and continues through May each Sunday after 10:00 a.m. Mass (10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.) in the Parish Offices.

Anyone interested in learning more about the Catholic faith is welcome to contact Vicki Peloquin at (847) 997-7350.

Parishioners...prayerfully consider becoming part of the RCIA Team as a sponsor, catechist, or to assist with hospitality. Call Vicki Peloquin (847) 997-7350 if you are interested.

Saint Vincent de Paul Ministry

The members of the Transfiguration Conference of the Society of St. Vincent DePaul have served the people of Wauconda township for over 70 years. We see Christ in the poor because Jesus told us "Whatever you do for the least of my brothers and sisters you do for me". You can help support us with a monthly check made out to SVDP Transfiguration or through the Give Central Program. Come join us on the 1st Tuesday of the month at 6:30 in the Parish Center to learn more.

Call Parish Office at 847-526-2400 ext. 222.

Wise Fools and Happy Stewards

"... If any of you think of yourself as wise, then you must learn to be a fool so that you may become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God...."

1 Corinthians 3:18-19

"Every Scribe in the kingdom is like a steward who brings out of his treasure both the new and the old."

The Sparough Family Mission Team
-- Fr. Michael, Tom, Tricia, & Maribel
March 1-3, 2020 7:00-8:30pm
Transfiguration Parish Church
316 W. Mill St, Wauconda, IL 60084

Decide now to join the joy of renewing our faith at our Parish Mission given by the Sparough Family Mission Team: Fr Michael, Tom, Tricia, and Maribel. The Sparoughs are entertaining evangelists who use their performing skills to bring the gospel message of Jesus alive.

The mission, Wise Fools and Happy Stewards is a call to follow Jesus into the heart of the gospel.

During our three day mission, these "birds of a feather" will lead us in praying through dramatizations of stories and familiar gospel scenes, spiritual analogies illustrated by juggling, guided imagery prayer, clowning, engaging preaching, uplifting songs, and rituals of blessing. This mission is for the whole family, designed to challenge, delight and re-ignite the flame of God's love in our hearts, to help set our captive hearts free.

Sunday, March 1: Discipleship: Following the Master of Folly
Monday, March 2: Reconciliation: Holding On and Letting Go
Tuesday, March 3: Mission: The Challenge Juggle
